There were around 12,000 lambs offered in the first SELX sheep and lamb sale. Quality was fair to good with only a handful of new season lambs offered and the majority of old lambs were showing the effects of the wintery conditions in the supply area and lacking finish. Merino lambs were well supplied and most of these were more suited to light processors. A large group of buyers attended the market, which sold to solid prices based on quality.

New season trade weights ranged from $114 to $130/head. Old lambs up to 16kg sold from $62 to $96/head. Medium and heavy trade lambs received $92 to $138/head averaging 560c/kg. Heavy lambs ranged from $125 to $152 and the extra heavy lambs topped at $170/head. Light Merino lambs sold from $63 to $82/head averaging 495c/kg. Heavy Merino lambs sold from $92 to $101/head.

Around 4,000 sheep were penned, and the quality was good and most attracted strong competition. Medium weights sold from $74 to $101 and heavy weight ewes $100 to $135/head. Heavy Merino wethers reached $135/head with a short skin.
