SELX Market Report Prime Sheep & Lamb - 21st December 2016

A much reduced yarding of 6,275 sheep and lambs at today's SELX sale.

The Lamb market was generally firm with the exception of better, fresher lambs, which due to short supply received strong support from trade buyers to be $3-5 dearer. Lighter, re-stocker lambs were keenly sort after, with the price firm to slightly dearer.

Heavier mutton, and mutton with skin, had a dearer trend, with the balance of the mutton selling to a firm market.

Market Report: Michael Hall, Michael Hall Livestock & Property.
