

SELX Market Report

Prime Lamb & Sheep – 14 September 2022

Yarding: 11,749

Lamb numbers doubled and the quality was mostly plain. There were a few ideal pens which were mostly grain assisted heavy weights. There were 2000 new season lambs of which 1300 were stores. Not all the usual buyers were operating, and the market sold to a cheaper trend.

The few new season trade lambs sold from $171 to $196/head with the store lambs starting from $39 for the tail end to $139/head. Old trade weights to 24kg cwt were back $4 to $5 and sold from $128 to $178/head and averaged 690c to 730c/kg cwt. Heavy lambs 24 to 26kg were firm on limited numbers and ranged from $175 to $191 and 26 to 30kg lambs were $10 cheaper $171 to $211/head.

Extra heavy lambs lost $9 selling from $210 to $220/head. The best priced hogget reached $170/head.

Mutton numbers eased and quality very mixed. Prices were cheaper with medium weight ewes $100 to $155 for long skinned Merinos. Heavy crossbred ewes fell $35 and ranged from $135 to $172/head. Heavy shorn Merinos reached $155/head.
